

A WIN, TWO SECONDS AND A THIRD FOR ZIMMERLY IN LEGENDS ACTION

( Mooresville, NC ) ó Team Full Throttle NASCAR Driver Development racer Zach Zimmerly had two strong runs over the weekend, finishing second behind fellow TFT racer Christian PaHud at Concord Motorsports Park in Concord, NC on Friday night, and then finishing third behind winner Steven Ross and teammate PaHud at the Friendship Motor Speedway National Qualifier event on Saturday. The two strong finishes followed a first and second in INEX Legends Semi-Pro action at Orlando Speedworld the previous weekend.

õWe had a good race on Friday night,õ began Zimmerly when recapping his weekend. õThe car was fast but I just couldn't quite catch Christian. On Saturday, at the end of the race Steven just got away from both Christian and me. I had a fast car. It was just tough racing in the heat. I want to thank my crew Donovan and Brian for all of their help, and my family for being there for me. It's nice when I can give them something to smile about.õ

Zimmerly started the season seven weeks late, but has made a charge in national points, finding himself inside the top 40 in points out of over 600 national competitors. õWe're trying to run as many races as possible,õ stated the 13-year old from Oregon. õThat's what you have to do in order to finish good in the points. We've been fast at a lot of the tracks we've gone to, but sometimes haven't had good luck. We seem to qualify either on pole or second, but then something happens in the race. The last couple of weeks we got the first and second at Orlando Speedworld and a second and third this weekend so that really helps.õ
