

Christian PaHud Hunting for Green October

Harrisburg, NC (Sept. 28, 2009) - A year ago at this time Christian PaHud was anticipating making his first start in a NASCAR limited late model at Tri-County Motor Speedway's Halloween Havoc race. He adjusted quickly - finishing fourth in his first start.

Now concluding his rookie season, he's added three wins to his resume in the Orion Motorsports prepared no.63, and is hoping to make green his favorite color this October as he chases $5,000 in purse money offered in two extra-distance races for the division.

First, he's tentatively planning to make his first start at Concord Speedway, where he'll attack the ½-mile tri-oval on October 10th for the second annual Miracle Dental Center Robbie Wells Memorial with the utmost respect. "I know you can definitely tear up some equipment there," PaHud said. "But I seem to do well on bigger tracks and I'd love to be able to walk away with the check in the 100-lap race at Concord." That race pays $2,000 to the winner.

Then it's back to Tri-County Motor Speedway on Halloween night for his second attempt at the $3,000 top prize in the Halloween Havoc 150-lap race. "It's actually my first attempt when I halfway know what I'm doing in a Late Model," the youngster joked. "Last year was my first time racing the car and I was really happy just to finish, let alone get fourth. Tri-County was our home track this year and we won three times there, so hopefully we'll be able to race for the win in the 150."
